WHAT IS CCF?

The Charlottesville/Albemarle Commission on Children and Families (CCF) is a 20-member body of citizens and education and human service agency representatives which advises the Charlottesville City Council and the Albemarle County Board of Supervisors on improving outcomes for children and families.

CCF works with its many different Work Groups and Sub-committees to identify and address community needs, to inform the community of available resources, to network local human service agencies, organizations, and voluntary associations, and to recommend solutions to the challenges facing our communities' families and children.
