

Guiding Principal #1:

Children/youth with emotional disturbances should have access to comprehensive array of services that address their physical, emotional, social, and educational needs

Mental Health Services in Systems of Care:

1. Assessment and diagnosis
2. Outpatient family counseling
3. Outpatient individual counseling
4. Psychiatric medication assessment and management
5. Intensive Home Based
6. Day Treatment/partial hospitalization
7. Crisis services
8. Behavioral aides
9. Therapeutic foster care services
10. Therapeutic group homes
11. Residential treatment centers
12. Crisis residential services
13. Inpatient hospital services
14. MH case management
15. School based mental health services
16. School based SA and MH prevention services
17. Respite services
18. Wraparound services
19. Family education
20. Transportation services
21. After school programs
22. Early intervention services (0-4)
23. Family Support and Sustenance (paying for utilities, paying for car repair or transportation., medical services)
24. Independent Living Services
25. Interpersonal and recreational skill development
26. Vocational services

Services are on a continuum: Prevention, Early Intervention, and Intensive Services