

YOUTH DEVELOPMENT NETWORK

YOU CALL - IT WORKS

- ▶ The Youth Development Network has a free local resource you can call between 9am and 5pm Monday through Friday to have someone help you locate resources for youth in the Charlottesville/Albemarle community.
- ▶ The goal of the YDN is to create a seamless referral network and to engage and connect youth with appropriate services and/or activities
- ▶ YDN is for everyone! Call 800-YDN-2021 and the trained responder will help youth locate services and activities such as:
  - After school activities
  - Prevention and intervention services
  - Tutoring services
  - Sports and Arts activities
- ▶ If you need information after-hours take a look at the Guide to Youth Services online searchable database at www.ccfinfo.org to get contact information for hundreds of non-profit agencies in Charlottesville/Albemarle.

For more information please call Hamid Karimianpour at 243-7923.

The Youth Development Network is sponsored by and located in the offices of the Charlottesville/Albemarle Commission on Children and Families.
